Electro-Play - Wild Orgasms or Wild Exaggeration?

The verdict?
"...many, many orgasms later"
"...the best purchase we have made for some time"
"... devilish devices, ... added whole new elements to our play"
"... the possibilities with this new toy are endless"
"... outrageous!"
"... enjoyed hugely by both of us"

OK, so maybe it looks like something that belongs on your dashboard or in a school of electronics - but if you're new to electric play then here's your chance to go and play with some high-action, gadgetry that's pretty much guaranteed to get you and your playmates turned on, charged up, well-wired, and switched on. Call it what you will, its top-level toys for grown up girls and boys and its made by E-Stim Systems. One of the world's top manufacturers of high quality electrical stimulation gear and known for their helpful service and detailed advice on electrical systems, E-Stim Systems are inviting you to come and try these toys, fiddle with knobs, meet their team, and find out just what it is about E-Stim's seriously sexy Systems that makes people say things like, "...fantastic ... easy to use... brilliant fun and ... Oh My God! I'll leave your imagination to the rest." Go and play with E-Stim Systems at Erotica, Stand 124 and find out more at www.e-stim.co.uk
