

DESIRE

I could do about it. Alex continued turning the handle and soon the cage was afloat. With nothing else to do, I let my body go limp against the straps and breathed in time to the gentle sway of the cage. I could've stayed there all day, but Alex was keen to try the electrical devices upstairs.

While he went to get some batteries for his camera I armed myself with a condom and some lube and headed to the sex machine. I strapped my feet into the chair and moved my pelvis so the fully stretched bedildoed end fitted inside me. Then I used the handle of a flogger to trip the switch and, as the rod moved back, the dungeon filled with a mechanical sound. I was a little embarrassed by the noise but too intrigued to stop. The rod moved towards me and slotted neatly into my hole, filling me up. As it moved backwards and forwards, my hips began to rhythmically buck in sweet surrender.

Gone were the worries of deadlines, bank balances and Liz being upset with the standard of my tea-making. I have no idea what time I crept into the big comfortable bed, too spent to enjoy the extensive porn collection or the erotic fiction that filled the shelves. I drifted off into a deep sleep.

I awoke to the smell of bacon. Sir was rewarding my efforts by cooking me a fry-up. As I tucked in I flicked through the guest book. Many had come to celebrate birthdays and anniversaries. I took out my pen and added my own private note, thanking the mistress for a night I'd never forget. We'd been up most of the night, but still hadn't been able to try everything. Now, back in the office, I am on a mission to make Liz's tea extra weak and in a chipped mug so that she'll see the need to punish me and hopefully send me back...

THE NIGHT PLAYED OUT WITH MUCH FLOGGING
AND A STINT IN A RUBBER
BODY BAG

I managed to sort myself out before Alex came back. But, sensing I'd been a naughty girl, he locked me in the stocks while he enjoyed a glass of wine. But I didn't mind. I was happy to obey his command. So the night played out with much flogging, mild disobedience, punishment and a stint in a leather body bag.
